What is the difference between the School Direct Fee and SCITT Programmes?

In essence, the only difference between these two programmes are the schools to which you apply. If you apply to SCITT you will be asked to state a preference for where you might like to train. For the School Direct Programme (Fee) you need to apply to the KYRA on the relevant pathway, 3-7, 5-11 or 7-11.

For the SCITT Programme you need to apply to Lincolnshire SCITT on the relevant pathway, 3-7, 5-11 or 7-11.

Both courses will run identically. For both courses you will pay the exact same training fees of £9,250, you will be based within one of our partner schools and the training you receive will be exactly the same. Therefore, to improve your chances of securing a place on our training programme you could apply to both the Lead School and SCITT provider.

We look forward to receiving your application.
